Cause you don't ask for others to bow down to you
Even when you're greater than they will ever grow to be Or want to be or try to be So why does it seem crazy that a guy like me could ever Attract a goddess like you
And how come everyone one but me is blind to see
That were unstoppable together I know
And I don't know what others see in you

But I can see everything so clear
Your eyes watching fireflies on a quiet night
Yeah it seems so right girl
Why does it seem crazy that a guy like me could ever Attract a goddess like you
And how come everyone one but is blind to see
That were unstoppable together I know
