I've done things I shouldn't have done
Said things I shouldn't have said
Read things I shouldn't have read
But I'm old
Even though I may be just 19
There are things I've seen that make me feel like 91
Can't be that hard
This has all been done before
This has all been felt before
This has all been said before
I'm not the first human alive

So why the pain?
I said I was sorry
Is anyone there to hear my call?
Everything's grey
They say that love conquers
It seems to me it does nothing at all
Nothing at all

I've been in this life too long
Need to go make a change
Instead I write dumb songs
Am I old?
Seems like a lot has happened for 19
God, the things I've seen
I'm suprised I've lived this long

Can't be that hard
This has all been done before
This has all been felt before
This has all been said before
I'm not the first human alive

So why the pain?
I said I was sorry
Is anyone there to hear my call?
Everything's grey
They say that love conquers
It seems to me it does nothing at all

Nothing at all

Love has let me down

Love has let me down
