Cause I'm lost without you here And though I try so hard I can't be on my own I've always had your hand to put in mine And all my walls are falling down And I'm not gonna hold back anything I feel Cause that's what always makes me lose the most I won't make a sound I won't even move if you say no You're the only one And I'm lost without you here Please be mine I'll try this time Until the end of time You're the girl of my dreams Now I'm feeling so alone Last time I saw you You could hardly speak a word But you felt my pain I saw it in your eyes And my legs felt like they froze When you closed the door behind you I could die You didn't look back You left without a glance I won't make a sound I won't even move if you say no You're the only one And I'm lost without you here Please be mine I'll try this time Until the end of time You're the girl of my dreams
