I'm all for image
But i don't wanna see you do your hair in the review mirror
I'm pretentious, vicious and surreptitious
With words like a well-dressed weapon
Another cheap-shot in the back of the head
Another trend that i regret
"Tonight's getting late and i haven't slept for days"

So slow down darling
& read between the lines like i read you
No i'll never get over you
So spin me around i'm down
I've been sitting out the chance to dance with you
For long enough

I love the way she writes me poetry
Far better than i could so i'm told
Open my eyes she's sleeping off the kiss she slipped next to me
Today i will wear a smile

So slow down darling
& read between the lines like i read you
No i'll never get over you
So spin me around i'm down
I've been sitting out the chance to dance with you
For long enough

So take a risk and take her wrist
And lead her to the dancefloor

Under fluorescent lights to bedroom eyes
Who knows you might fall in love tonight

Hey, hey, hey
You might fall in love tonight
Hey, hey, hey
You might fall in love tonight
Hey, hey, hey
You might fall in love tonight

So slow down darling
& read between the lines like i read you
No i'll never get over you
So spin me around i'm down
I've been sitting out the chance to dance with you
For long enough

So slow down darling
& read between the lines like i read you
No i'll never get over you
So spin me around i'm down
I've been sitting out the chance to dance with you
For long enough

You might fall in love tonight.
