If I don't wake in the morning
Write I'd never slept a night alone,
In arial on my headstone
Recast me for my own parts
I'm an atom off a star
In the limelight sipping a Daiquiri

I need change, I need change
Like a wishing well
Maybe a miracle or two to bribe my way outta hell
I need change, I need change.
Like a wishing well
From the nightspot to the hotel singing; don't tell.

My heart and head go out of sync
When you sing, when you sing, when you sing to me
Oh, I'd crash heavens golden-gates
With a grin, with a grin, with a grin on my face
I need change, i need change, i need change.
I need change, i need change, i need change.

Do my head an Immeleman turn
I need to spiral out
To crash into myself again
By noon I'll go lunatic
I'm sick, I'm sick
Wrapt up in her like a straight jacket
I need change, I need change,
Like a wishing well
Maybe a mirical or 2 to bribe my way out of hell

I need change (I need change)
Like a wishing well
Got that devil-dancing in my soles now

My heart and head go out of sync
When you sing, when you sing, when you sing to me
Oh, I'd crash heavens golden-gates
With a grin, with a grin, with a grin on my face
I need change, i need change, i need change.
I need change, i need change, i need change.

My baby habit crying through the monitor, I'm done, i'm done, i'm done.
Our loves growing mold
Butterfly turning back Riddle me this riddle me that and It's easy to see the world in new light when all you knows the dark.

i need change, i need change, i need change.
yeah.

My heart and head go out of sync
When you sing, when you sing, when you sing to me
(oh when you sing to me)
Oh, I'd crash heavens golden-gates
With a grin, with a grin, with a grin on my face (oh, oh, oh oh oh.)
I need change, i need change, i need change. (like a wishing well)
I need change, i need change, i need change. (like a
wishing well)
I need change, i need change, i need change. (like a
wishing well)
I need change, i need change, i need change.
no, no, no, no, no, oh, no, no, oh oh.
