Here I come with a little bit of help
Here I come with a little bit of help
Here I come with a little bit of help
Here I come with a little bit of
Over you with a little bit of help
Over you with a little bit of help
Over you with a little bit of help
Over you with a little bit of
Here comes the superstar
Here comes the superstar
Here comes the superstar, yeah oh yea
I found out with a little bit of help
I found out with a little bit of help
I found out with a little bit of help
I found out with a little bit of
Coming down with a little bit of help
Coming down with a little bit of help
Coming down with a little bit of help
Coming down with a little bit of
Here comes the superstar
Here comes the superstar
Here comes the superstar, yeah oh yea

Its all I want, it's all I need
Its all I see, it's all I breathe
Its all I want, it's all I need
Its all I eat, it's all I breathe
Its what I am, it's what I know
Its what I feel, it's what I bleed
Oh
Here comes the superstar
Here comes the superstar
Here comes the superstar, yeah
Here comes the superstar
Here comes the superstar
Get on the devils back, get on the devils back
Get on, on the devils back
Gouge my eyes with a little bit of help
Gouge my eyes with a little bit of help
Gouge my eyes with a little bit of help
Gouge my eyes with a little bit of
I wont die with a little of help

I wont die with a little of help
I wont die with a little of help
I wont die with a little of Star
