I was longing for a caress from you
I wanted to stay beside you - but that time was up to you
The sun is shining in any other place but here
You want to be there. Not with me, that was my fear...

I stayed in my room, waiting for your call.
You were late as always. I'm gonna fall...
I have to see you five days a week
The first one's over, that's okay, at least for me.

You're gone away. What's left to say?

I wanna be sarcastic. Oh, how nice you look!
But instead I shake like I never shook.
We still have things to talk about.
But if you would regret it, I would never know...

I'm still waiting for the answers.
You know the questions. It's your turn...
