I got connected
In a money making thing
It was surely crooked
He told me in a dream
I can't believe the fool I'd be
Tomorrow is the day,
The day that I will be
Then I saw the headlights
Coming towards my home
I became so nervous
I knew I had to go
Away until my love can see
Tomorrow is the day,
The day that I will be
I will be appointed
To guard her from the snow
Keep her from the loneliness
The loneliness below
She says let go, she needs to know
Tomorrow is the day
The day that she will know
I've never stood on mountains
I never stand alone
I've never been through China
I've never really flown
I know, I know
She says let go
Tomorrow is the day
The day that I'll let go
