It seems I'm not the youngest anymore
Well, I could lean back and relax some more
Have a cigarette and start to reflect
Should start paying back to even the score

And you know where you came from
And you know why you have done this song
And you know what you can't stand
And I know what...

I will not forget, I will not regret
I'll always remind myself
I'm not gonna stop stop, I'll always fight back
I always pay my cheque

Well I can listen to these records on and on
And I have mentioned how much I love
With a cigarette and another drink
Now I can sing out what I have to give

And you know where you came from...
