Why should I let you win
It's always up to you
Not this time
Nothing left to show
Nothing's left for you
No one left to use
What are you gonna do?
What are you gonna do?

Fill your voids
Fill your time
Fill your life
With your bullsh*t lies
Whatever you do, you'll always feel
Empty inside, empty inside,
(You are) empty inside

If you stay the way you are,
In the end you'll get what you want
I'm done wasting my time
You'll never fill this void in your life
Against the wall, against your knife
No more late nights wondering why
You make me feel empty inside
You'll be lonely until you die

Now it's your turn to stay up all night
You'll go to sleep wondering why
You wake up the same way with nowhere to go,
With nothing left
No words and songs played for you

If you stay the way you are,
In the end you'll get what you want
I'm done wasting my time
You'll never fill this void in your life
Against the wall, against your knife
No more late nights wondering why
You make me feel empty inside
You'll be lonely until you die

It's not OK that you live in this way
(It's not OK, it's not OK)
You wanna live a life worth living
Let go your past, let go your past
Stop holding onto things you had
Good things will never last,
Stop holding onto your past
This won't last.

Stop holding onto things you had
Good things will never last,
Stop holding onto your past
This won't last.
