When everything
When everything is falling down around you and you don't know what to do
We can make it clearer, if you make this sincere
Pick up the pieces of your broken mirror
Forging your skin with a broken knife won't make things clear within your Life
Give this a chance

Give it all you got
We've been given a chance
Give it all you got
We've been given a chance
Give it all you got and don't give in
Don't give up and don't pretend
Give it all you got
We've been given a chance
Give it all you got
We've been given a chance
Give it all you got and don't give in
Don't give up and don't pretend

I hope you'll never take steps backwards
All I hear is you want to move on with your life
All I wanna do is move along now, so move along now
I hope you'll never take steps backwards
All I hear is you want to move on with your life
All I wanna do is move along now, so move along now

You need to move forward with your life
You need to move forward with your life

Give it all you got
We've been given a chance
Give it all you got
We've been given a chance
Give it all you got and don't give in
Don't give up and don't pretend
Give it all you got
We've been given a chance

Give it all you got
We've been given a chance
Give it all you got and don't give in
Don't give up and don't pretend
