I push myself everyday, I push myself.
I look to you everyday, I look to you.
Now through this looking glass, it is time to set this right.
Looking back on everything I have times have changed, seasons pass, everyday I'm making things ok for myself.
It's time to see what's at the end of the road.
It's dark outside, and the feeling confidence is leaving my side.

How could you hold on, to this fucking lie, the damage
done
How could you hold on, to this fucking lie, the damage
done
How could you hold on, to this fucking lie, the damage
done
How could you hold on, to this fucking lie, the damage
done

How much time will this take, it's so unforgiving.
What will it take to forget this, tis changing nothing.
How much time will this take, it's so unforgiving.
What will it take to forget this, time is changing, time is changing nothing.
Were going back and forth, and I'm starting to think that I'm just wasting my time.

Where do I go from here, this void in my life
Where do I go from here, this void in my life

Where do I go from here, I need something more
Where do I go from here, I need something more
