

For Today "Redemption"

Visit "Redemption" on MotoLyrics.com

I have been in this daily battle long enough
To know it's time to bring this to an end
A call to be pure, to be so clean.
A call for action

I lift my prayers to you, father
Bring us to our knees. (2x)

Let me hear your voice in this time of need
And take this lust away from me!

This is your redemption (4x)

This is our freedom
Our freedom, our right

Tonight I make this promise
To never let lust take over my life

I know there will be many trials
And I will be tempted
But by your grace and your love
I will defeat this
And taste the sweet sweet victory
In you, Jesus
