Nobody says anything, man
The choke is on neck deep
Bring down the reign
Some people talk a good game
Only the strong play to win it
Play on my friend

Game of hypocrisy cheated me
End, end of all the false disharmony
It's killing me

If you're happy to be an ant in the sandbox you're welcome to it
To this dog you're a flea
Bloodsucker mentality

Kick back and relax
Deny all the facts
Nobody says nothing
Man, nothing at

All that is isn't at all
All that is one day will fall

Make a point of the pointless
Never mind the unseen
Clouds fill your head
Blind without truth or dignity
Harsh reality

The truth will rise again and they will fall against the truth
