From these dreams I am immortal

Oh no you can't
But you will never know it
I'm traumatized
But you will never know it
...I'll just admit it to Satisfy myself...

Far
A far cry behind
While you're admitting you were a fool
I'll be going
Where the good and bad are now one
What's going on
My world is filtered...
And combination
Lead you to yourself

Lead you to yourself and your selfish sensation

You're impossible with the chemical invasion
Life in solitude to imagine white light
My only choice outside

A new way to be right where anything
As you steal my stories
But contemplation is just a way
My answer's just like me
Another way for you to slide

Far
I'm far cry behind
You have admitted that you were a fool
But I am gone
Gone
