I remember the day
Seems so far away
When i walked into your life
And the look in your eyes
How it took you by suprise
But it felt so right

Then i drew you in
Told you anything
Cuz I wanted you so bad
Girl i led you on
Said there's nothing wrong
In giving your heart to me

But when it comes to love
I should know better
When it comes to love
I take the blame
Cuz you are the one I should've held on to
Yeah, it coulda ben you

I never realized
How time was on my side
Lost sight of my perfect world
And the man that ive become
From the damage that i've done
It's so clear to me now

But I wished that I
Never was the kind
To steal a lonely heart
And I didn't see how good you were for me
Now it's too late to go back
Cuz when it comes to love
I should know better
When it comes to love
I take the blame
Cuz you are the one I should've held on to

When it comes to love
Girl I can't help it
When it comes to love

I always lose my way
And you are the one I should've held on to

Ah, it coulda been you
Making a change in my heart
Finding a new place to start
Wondering what I can do
Will I ever get over you... no

When it comes to love
I should know better
When it comes to love
I take the blame

When it comes to love
Girl I can't help it
I always lose my way
Ah, it could've been you
