She said it feels like I'm falling again
Said it feels like the first time
Will I be afraid to fall this time

You play our song on the radio
Called me out in the rain
I'm standing here with nothing to lose
And everything to gain

It don't mean nothing unless you feel the same
And I'll be waiting here until you see me
Cause I know you are

Everything I could ever
Ever want to find
I don't want to and I don't need to Cause you can be everything

She said I feel confused
I don't know what I need
Every word that I should have said left silently

It don't mean nothing unless you feel the same
And I'll be waiting here until you see me

Catch me I'm falling down again
Don't wake me if you're not here
