Help me stand
I'm not sure if I'm the one for this
Help me see
When I know she's not the one for me
I can't find
The open door in a darkened light
In her time
She caught me in her frame of mind

She's so cold
Just to keep the fire burning bright
She's so cold
I'll never find my way back home tonight
Sunshine falls
Show me where your conscience hides
In winters eyes
She's taken all my peace of mind
I'm a fool
A pawn in your game of life
Make your move
You trap me in it's hard to fight

Tonight it's wrong
Tonight you're gone
