

Forever Never "Drowning"

This corruptible mind,
Abnegating deliberation,
Heart unshaken.
Take a crowning breath,

We're sinking deeper out of consciousness.

Consciousness.

Hold head under,
Hold my nose.
Senses Fading,
Paradise comes true.

This inquisitive soul,
Confined to this uninspiring world,

Will end soon.
Eyes aligned, and brain controls every move,
I'm ready for asphyxiation.

Breathing.

Will cease, to be.

Hold head under,
Hold my nose.
Senses Fading,
Paradise comes true.
