So baby read my lips
Were going down
Like sinking ships
And every single night
Under the moon light darling
I try to hold you closely
As we start falling

So girl
Just wear that dress
And i'll put on my sundays best
And as we make our way
To time square baby
We will wait it out
As time starts fading

You and me
It's all we've got
All we've got to show
Oh, oh

I made a resolution
To keep you around
I guess it's all we got now
I've never been good
With changes
So ring in the new year

So baby read my lips
Were going down
Like sinking ships
And every single night
Under the moon light darling
I try to hold you closely
As we start falling

So girl just wear that dress
And ill put on my sundays best
And as we make our way
To time square baby
We will wait it out as time
Starts fading

It's all we got now
Forever, forever
