[Levi 167]

Right about now (right about now)
We're gonna give you something a little.. (a little)
Dope dope, d-dope dope, dope
Dope dope, d-dope dope
But before we get into somethin dope
I wanna know all y'all homeboys out there ready to play the game (YEAH!)
Fly girls out there do you know how to play the game?
(YEAH!)
Party people do we need any rules for this game?
(NO!!)
So let's play

Well, I'm, Levi, one-six-seven Girls...
Levi! ..
Comin out your face, for no apparent reason...
Let the fact remain, as the hardest I reign...
And I teach the lesson, because they see I'm fresh and...
Should, make no exceptions for the passengers in sections
They come up with the dope entertainer to rock this jam
session
This is the game, and we're all a bunch of fame
Party people in the house what's my name?
Levi! One-six-seven

Certainly, you think it's hard work for me
Over a blunt and some tea, I write the dope lyrics easily
See I have arrived to rock you live
Throwin up with many discos and adult street joints
qualified
Distant in the visual, in rap not a musical
For fighting dope rhymes and beats, to rock as usual
Slayin the hit list, only suckers get dissed
My job's to rock, so c'mon and let's do this
Spit lines right off the head, {?}
Bronx New York is where we live, and I have come to give
