It's getting late your eyes are closed and mine are wide awake

(But still!)

I can never go on I can never go on like

(Just like!)

I'm begging just to see your eyes again

I can never go on (I can never go on)

Should I even care that she didn't say anything

Tried to do my best should've given her better things

Like rings... and roses...

Never do reply when I hint the message

I try to smell my best with a bottle of essence

Getting to the point, style and romance

And I could never go on I could never go on

The way she moves away oh

I wanted her to stay awhile don't go oh away oh

The way she moves away oh

I wanted her to stay awhile don't go

Away oh whoa

She's showing signs of motion as she wipes the sleep away

I can get through this I can get through this ride

You gotta give a little cause it takes a lot to get over you

Cause it makes no sense to be permanent if your not feeling it, right right right

The way she moves away oh

I wanted her to stay awhile don't go away oh

The way she moves away oh

I wanted her to stay awhile don't go

Away oh whoa

It's a terrible thing to know what you want

And to know you can't have it at all

I wanted was to let you know how I...

It's a terrible thing

It's a terrible it's a terrible thing

Ohhh
A terrible a terrible thing

The way she moves away oh I wanted her to stay a awile
Don't go away oh
The way she moves away ohh I wanted her to stay awile
Don't go away oh oh
The way she moves
The way she moves
The way she moves
The way she moves
