Disrupting the passage of time; the beast of regret has been biting over again, repetition.
Its all in my head, its coming closer.
My will is weak, youve reduced me down to this.

Burn all the chapters I wrote in blood.
And tear out the pages, send shock to the world.
Forget what you know; forget what youve heard;
forgive my decisions for starting the fire.

Now over and over again Beware, my intentions are violent.
Is this the end? Youve reduced me down to this.

Burn all the chapters I wrote in blood.
And tear out the pages, send shock to the world.
Forget what you know; forget what youve heard;
forgive my decisions for starting the fire.
Burn in hell. Youll burn in hell for this.
