Keep your head up don't get caught
From the fences of this art
Girls like you seem to always get ripped apart
Put your clothes on, you look tired
All that friction and no desire
How's it feel to kill the fire?

Now you're just choking up and giving up
Well I'm done
Now you're just choking up and giving up
Well I'm done

And I'll keep you guessing while you are undressing
Keep up the habits 'cause you won't survive it
He won't love you like I do

And I'll keep you guessing while you are undressing
Keep up the habits 'cause you won't survive it
He won't love you like I do

Keep your hopes up for the worst
Girl your body was just your curse
I would always say that this could never work
Put your clothes on
(Put your clothes on)
Put your clothes on
(Put your clothes on)
No one wants to see you

Now you're just choking up and giving up
Well I'm done
Now you're just choking up and giving up
Well I'm done

And I'll keep your guessing while you are undressing
Keep up the habits 'cause you won't survive it
He won't love you like I do

And I'll keep your guessing while you are undressing
Keep up the habits 'cause you won't survive it
He won't love you like I do

Wait and if we fall?
Will we know where will we go?

So what, we lost it
(So what, we lost it)
(Is it something we just can't forget?)
(Or maybe we will?)
