If only you knew what went on
In those sheets when you were gone.
(Empty promises can't replace all the mistakes we've made
But I will.)
Remind you of what we lost
And how you were never good enough (Empty promises can't replace all the mistakes we've
made
But I will, but still)

Shut up and give up.
What you got will never be enough to get my love
I'll take my chances on meaningless romances
Don't waste your chances on me

Your kisses sweetie mean absolutely nothing to me (Empty promises can't replace all the mistakes we've
made
But I will.)
Realize what I have done
And how some of it must be wrong (Empty promises can't replace all the mistakes we've
made
But I will, but still)

Shut up and give up.
What you got will never be enough to get my love
I'll take my chances on meaningless romances
Don't waste your chances on me

(There's no way around it)
