You used my name under false pretense
You wrote my name at the side of the fence
I got you in the corner where I wanted you
Got you in the corner where there's no escape

And I'm angry. I'm angry. I got the right
Angry I'm angry and I got the right

You got a problem personality
All you hate you project on me
I got you in the corner where I wanted you
I got you in the corner where there's no escape

I hated everything you ever held close
What you held close, yes, I hated the most
I want revenge for the things you said
I want revenge for the reverence you spread

And I'm angry. I'm angry. I got the right.
Angry I'm angry I've got the right.

You got a problem personality
All you hate you project on me
I got you in the corner where I wanted you
Got you in the corner where there's no escape

You are a local popularity
They all believe what you say about me
I want to destroy you 'cause you took her away
I want to destroy you 'cause you stood in my way

And I'm angry. I'm angry. I have the right.
Angry I'm angry I have the right.

You've got a problem personality.
All you hate you project on me
Got you in the corner where I wanted you
Got you in the corner where there's no escape

2..3..4..All you need is protection. (When you walk down the street)
All you need is protection. (To say what you want to say)

All you need is protection. (To do what you want to do)

All you need is protection. (Who the fuck are you)
