I remember when Elvis died you all laid down and prayed and cried every empire needs a king I'm good looking and boy can I sing he'll roll over in his grave because of me, Rock 'n' Roll is saved I'm so great and I'm so cool I am the king and the rebels rule

it's me, myself, I am king I am the king of Rock 'n' Roll me, myself, I am king
I am the king of Rock 'n' Roll
the king is back and it's me what more is there I can see your lord and king is here to stay where ordinary rock and roll act we're not egotistic, just stating fact think how many dreams came true you waited many years, didn't you?

If you was not for your masters' * you'd still be wandering in the *

it's me, myself, I am king
I am the king of Rock 'n' Roll
me, myself, I am king
I am the king of Rock 'n' Roll
the king is back and it's me
