Six-foot two in red, white and blue.
(Let's go back to Vietnam)
We're gonna find out what napalm can do.
(Let's go back to Vietnam)
We're gonna finally finish what we should have won.
Bazookas and hand grenades to add to the fun.
Let's go back to Vietnam. Bowl 'em down first strike.
Twice again for Uncle Sam. Victory this fight.
It's time to regroup and renew our attack.
(Let's go back to Vietnam)
The Vietnam freedom fighters wanna go back.
(Let's go back to Vietnam)
We're not gonna collect any monkey's ears.

Gonna trade dog tags for communist tears.
Wanna teach some commies how to rock and roll.
(Let's go back to Vietnam)
Gonna turn their pavement into red hot coals.
(Let's go back to Vietnam)
Kill a commie for a mommie the American way.
Get the entire Middle East on the very next day.
