Everlasting cycle of pain
Reciprocal failure, our terminal game
You know, we're born with a birth defect
We only share feelings in our longing for death

One more step towards the end
Only while dying we're gonna hold out our hands
You'll slit my fucking throat
I'll kick your chair so you can swing from your rope

Let's burn together, let's start our strife
Let's dig our fucking graves, let's waste our lives

This angst keeps us alive
Let's torture each other
Like a splinter in our eyes
Let's torture each other
Please feed from my disease
Let's torture each other
We'll end up on our knees
Let's torture each other

A will to disappear
No more life means no more fear
This cruelty, our addiction
We'll share the nails for our crucifixion

Like heroin in our veins
Our pleasure in suffering will drive us insane
Strung out, I need a final injection
I'll overdose on my own self-destruction

Let's burn together, let's blind our sight
Let's get to the bitter end, let's fuck up our lives

This angst keeps us alive

Let's torture each other
Like a splinter in our eyes
Let's torture each other
Please feed from my disease
Let's torture each other
We'll end up on our knees
Let's torture each other

There's no compassion in the way we live
A selfish constant search for all the kicks we need
I don't want to be saved, you got it all wrong
I want us to share our grave
The only place we belong

This angst keeps us alive
Let's torture each other
Like a splinter in our eyes
Let's torture each other
Please feed from my disease
Let's torture each other
We'll end up on our knees
Let's torture each other
