I wake up in the bloodbath
My body marked with scars
The taste of hatred, in my mouth
What happened? where am I?
If only I could rewind
This awful scene in my mind
And go byck, back to the start
Before the screen goes blank
Another shred of flashback
Now I know that there's
No thurning back
Seized by this dark sensation
I sink deapper, I'm pushed too far
The knife in my hands
The grin on your face
I feel like nothing
Can stop me! Your hands
On my neck, the blood from my
Veins, can't catch a breath
Just to save me!
If only I could go back
Bend the time
Erase my memories
Seal my fate and walk away!
Seal my fate and walk away!
