It's your bed
Please choose a side
I'll take the one closest to the door
And you start to speak
The words that try to justify do far more wrong than anything you do
So grab the coat, the keys, the tension speaks but we're singing it

[Chorus]

I'll tap the break while you crack the window
The smell of smoke is making my lungs explode
The 51 is backed up and too slow
Let's tune out by turning on the radio

And this town is dead
We've been caught in these sheets way too long
Let's just see who's up on this screen
No one I know is more depressing than me
Or should I say the two of us
Cause after all we're all we've got
And tension speaks but we're singing it

[Chorus]

I'll tap the break while you crack the window
The smell of smoke is making my lungs explode
The 51 is backed up and too slow
Let's tune out by turning on the radio

And oh my love, you're all I need
Backed behind a frequency
They played this song an hour ago
Let's tune out
Let's tune out by turning on the radio

Haven't we heard this song about a thousand times before
Oh well
After awhile it all sounds the same
I guess it's better than silence and better than shame

Chorus

I'll tap the break while you crack the window
The smell of smoke is making my lungs explode
The 51 is backed up and too slow
Lets tune out by turning on the radio

And oh my love, you're all I need
Backed behind a frequency
They played this Song an hour ago
Lets tune out
Lets tune out
Lets tune out by turning on the radio
