"As soon as the rain stops, I'm gonna make an example of you."

Just shut the door when you choose to leave.
I don't wanna feel any colder than I already do.

And no amount of wind is gonna move this rock.
If you were looking for me to let you in, that's a thought you can forget.

I don't care what they say, the sun will shine another day.
I've weathered too much to walk away.
I know it's not the worst thing to happen in my life.
My fears are starting to pour down on me. Now I don't know what to believe.

Feels like I'm losing my mind, like I'm losing everything.
Like my body is a prison I can't escape.

This is the sadness only loneliness can bestow.
Pick up the pieces of your broken soul.
Weld them to your bones.
Weld them to your fucking bones.

Anger floods the streets. I stand knee deep.
I can't remember the last time I felt the sun fresh against my face.
Keep moving on. I will not drown.
I'm not about to walk away, but let me ask you:
How long will you wait?
