"Love Like Mine"

Suddenly I'm here again
Arms are open wide
I'll give you everything you need
Your soul a place to hide
Tell me that you'll let me in
Tell me I can stay
Tell me I can be with you
I'll never go away
Tell me what you wanna do
Baby take your time
Love is all you have to do
I'll give you some of mine

Lonely lover I can see it in your eyes
No, you'll never
Find another love like mine
Cover you with promises
Every one I'll keep
Always watching over you
Even in your sleep
Tell me I can stay with you
Tell me I can stay
I will never leave you
I'll never go away.
