had a bad day again
she said i would not understand she left a note and said i'm sorry i had a bad day again

she spilled her coffee, broke her shoelace smeared the lipstick on her face slammed the door and said i'm sorry i

and she swears there's nothing wrong i hear her playing the same old song she puts me off and puts me on and had a bad day again

left a note and said i'm sorry i had a bad day again
