Hey Martin, Play me them blues baby Yeah like that, that's what I'm talkin' about Silky smooth
Hey smooth like the way Taryn and I had to rob that bank up the way
'Cause I can only take living with moms for so long
The worst part was I owed about five large, but not no more Let me tell you how I came up and got, the money

Now gather round, and listen close And let me lay it all out for you See I've been down too long and I'm going for broke 'Cause there's nothing left to loot Hey how about you?

And me, so if you're in now if you're in now here's the plan
We bum rush the bank, take as much as we can Then were back to the van, that's the scam, understand?
Comprendes (what?)
Well do you understand the plan?
You only gotta ask me once

'Cause I've been wondering what to do for the money wondering where to go for the dough wondering what to do for the money

Now it's a quarter past five on an otherwise ordinary
??? afternoon
Inside the van standing by for the signal at the corner of ??? & ??? Avenue
I give the cue (Oo) and I filled our water guns with number one Nobody moves, nobody gets squirt Aww sick its leaking Ah just wash it off

No more wondering what to do for the money
No more wondering where to go for the dough

No more wondering what to do for the money
No more wondering where to go for the dough
No more wondering what to do for the money
No more wondering where to go for the dough
No more wondering what to do for the money
No more wondering where to go

Take off, its crazy what a bothers gotta do for the money ain't a damn thing funny 'bout running out of cash
And nothing gonna stop the brother sister team
We be living out our dreams when we get the cream
And its 4:53 and I believe its time to go for ours Anybody play the hero gets a golden shower Yes poverty suck I've had enough of top ramin so we're movin' on up into a deluxe apartment

No more wondering what to do for the money
No more wondering where to go for the dough
No more wondering what to do for the money
No more wondering where to go yeah, hit the b-flat right

Listen up
So if you watch today's bank security closed circuit tapes here's what you saw la,la,la,la two very unusual suspects (yea that's right) pulled off the smoothes hold up of them all and without a flaw you know I ditched the cops in T County clean we hit the road down the coast bound for mexico and all the way we had to sing

No more wondering what to do for the money
No more wondering where to go for the dough
No more wondering what to do for the money
No more wondering where to go for the dough (hey a fifty dollar bill)
No more wondering what to do for the money
No more wondering where to go for the dough
No more wondering what to do for the money
No more wondering where to go for the dough

Man this van just eats up the gas Oh my god! Dude let me drive, here let me drive Stop, stop I'm gonna drive Go faster!
I'm, I'm trying!
This is as fast as it goes

Watch out! Oh my god you almost hit that old lady Get out of the way!
You know I'm sorry but I'm gonna run, I'm gonna run alright, hold on I'll try and get you out ok

Wondering what to do for the money (move away from the vehicle)

Wondering where to go for the dough (keep your hand where I can see them)

Wondering what to do for the money (it was Taryn's idea)

Wondering where to go for the dough (can you pull your pants up son)
