"Hold Me"

If i could go back again
To a place that ive never been
I would change the day
You ever had to say
I wouldn't always keep turning away
Or bend the rules knowing that theyd break
And i would change the day
You ever had to say to me

Hold me, hold me
Don't be, the only
The only shadow in my heart

If i told you the truth
Youd believe without needing proof
And i would change the day
You ever had to say
And in the back of my memory
I wouldn't hide from the things ive seen
And i would change the day
You ever had to say to me

Hold me, hold me
Don't be, the only
The only shadow in my heart

Chalk it up to another time
Its enough to say i never wanted it
At all...

Hold me
