Welcome to the sounds of screaming
Welcome to the walls of stone
Knock me out and leave me bleeding
At 13 years
You feel so old
And i know it wont get easier
And i know until im gone

I wont make it
I wont make it
Welcome to this prison called home

Said you'd leave if he adores you
Said you'd leave if he gets stoned
Got to get me out of this prison
Got to get me out of this tomb
And i know it wont get easier
And i know until im gone

I wont make it
I wont make it
Welcome to this prison called home
