Like Belle and Sebastian
We're dressed to impress
(It's all for you)
We've got it all
But can't find the meaning
(This is where love ends)

These words we're made
To hurt in this ordinary life
When you're starving for recognition
These wounds were made to heal
This has never been about
Breaking hearts just following our dreams

I replay these moments everyday
We're getting closer
I can taste it, can you feel it?

Can you feel it? Ohh
Can you feel it? Yeah
Can you feel it? Ohh
Can you feel it?

This is all everything that you could be
Leave the heart at home
Let's take this down a tone
This love secrecy is killing me
It's killing me, ohh

We've come this far to turn back now
From all the nights we've spent apart
These days have come and passed us by
Only the strong survive

There's gotta be more to life than this
In the blink of an eye
This could take us alive
It's okay to say no
Please just make up your mind

In the blink of an eye
This could take us alive

Leave us starving for home
Take me back where I'll never grow old

But rest assured I'm coming home
This is all everything that you could be
This love secrecy is killing me
This is all, this is all that we could be
