i wish i had that clever line. the one that begs you to hang on.
slightly out of tune, but anything will do.

something that makes me feel alive again.
we move as one, i gotta admit i live for this.

right now, i fell like moving in on you.
i'm restless are you restless?

we'll wrap our arms and sleep close tonight, sleep
close tonight.

i gotta admit i live for this.
can we just get use to this?
i don't care who knows.

these blue eyes are so contagious

right now, i feel like moving in on you.

sleep close tonight, sleep close tonight

hold still you don't have to say a word
these blue eyes are so contagious .

i'm restless, are you restless?
i'm so restless, we're both restless, paying no attention
i'm restless are you restless?
only to the sound that we make casting shadows.
