Crashing down in london town
It seems so long coming down
Cause i remember
I remember
Another day filled with rain
Another night screaming "Pain"
It frightens me to think it could fade

Home is far away
Home is far away

Given life to meanings end
A brand new face...a truer friend
Do you remember?
Do you remember?
Im coming back I'll see you then
The cold room where it began
You pulled me up before i knelt to pray

Home is far away
Home is far away

Long drives
The sound of "Turnpike"
Tearing through your golden countryside
White lights shining from the sky
My one regret was that i couldnt stay

Home is far away
Home is far away

I can't see you
I can leave you
You wont leave my mind
I can't see you
I can't leave
You wont leave my mind
