It's perfect, or so they say
But it's hard to see it Turn out that way To keep it going, to keep it going, breathing breathe deep, breathe deep Try to keep it cool but you'll forget how foolish you will feel forget what strings you have to pull forget what strings what strings you have to pull

It's our time
and we're calling you out and we wont stop till we prove until we prove what we're all about and all that we've given up

Victory's ours now
you'll never put us down we're exactly what you need
and what you've always wanted what you've always wanted to be.

Your glory torn tales and my brave war stories of useless wants and pointless worries and living for her while you know she's breaking bones and she's breaking pockets using what shes been given cop it But what she's hiding up her sleeve is disbelief that now we believe

It's our time
and we wont stop till we prove

what you've always wanted to be.

It's our time
and we won't stop till we prove
