Waiting for the world to keep turning it's back on me,
I think I can say the same for you.
Deadman walking towards the light
Told me he would never fight
But now he's gonna make his way for you

But we will survive, were still alive
We will never die, alone

Uuhh uuhh
Noo!

I've given up the right to be honest with good company
But I could never say the same for you
Distance keeps you on your toes
The must have comes keep the storm and show
The way the combat calls my name out

But we will survive, we are still alive
We will never die, alone

Noo
Noo
Noo
Noo

It's just another day spent making all the same mistakes
And given all you have
For the time in line
Burn it rains, counting the days
Til we all just fade away
But we wont fall together
I'll tell you well remember that

We will never die
Well never die
Noo
Noo
Noo
But we will survive, were still alive
We will never die, alone
