The sun burnt out today
Tomorrow's just another day
So far away
When everything's so cold and grey
Awake in a daze
Time has seemed to change my face
Look away!
Look away!
I was ugly like you yesterday

Reinvent me

Don't panic
You're getting too close
It's contagious
It's turning you into everything that you've hated
Destroyed and created
The Infected

I'm making history
I swam across the seven seas
And I scraped my knees
From bowing down to royalty
So face to face
In the mirror stares my enemy
Cuz all I see
Instead of me
Is just another fucking casualty

Reinvent me

You're a fake
Disconnected
Lost your heart
Self-inflicted
Can I take you back to when it was real
When you cared about the way that I feel
