She's one in a million
Which makes my chances about a million to one
Like finding all the answers to every single question
You've ever asked yourself
While you're starring down the barrel of a loaded gun

And life throws a punch and I hit the floor bruised and broken
But still I'm begging for just one more
Call it compassion or satisfaction
But she keeps my from heart beat, beat, beating
For one beat more

She don't give me anything to breathe about
But safe to say and in contrast to point
She's not someone I want to breath about

And don't go running away
From all the things you're feeling inside
That's right, I don't care if she leaves me gasping for air
But she keeps me coming back for more

She's harsh in manifold perfectly
Promising and that's all that counts
Head over heels, heart over odds

Do you want to know the secret about her?
Yeah, but can you speak up just a little louder?
So come on, check, check, can you hear me now?
So come on, check, check, can you hear me now?

And I'll start fighting my way to the top
I've got a long way to go and I know
That I just won't stop till it's over and done with Cold, rotten and gone stiff
Six feet under those six inch heels

She don't give me anything to breathe about
But safe to say, and in contrast to point
She's not someone I want to breathe about

Don't go running away
From all the things you're feeling inside
That's right, I don't care if she leaves me gasping for air
But she keeps me coming back for more

So come on, check, check, can you hear me now?
So come on, check, check, can you hear me now?

And life throws a punch and I hit the floor bruised and broken
(Can you hear me now?)
But still I'm begging for just one more

Call it compassion or satisfaction
(Can you hear me now?)
But she keeps my heart from beat, beat, beating
For one beat more

She don't give me anything to breathe about
But safe to say, and in contrast to point
She's not someone I want to breathe about

Don't go running away from all the things you're feeling inside
That's right, I don't care if she leaves me gasping for
air
But she keeps me coming back for more

She don't give me anything to breathe about
