When you know that I'm gone you will
Say to yourself
I have nothing anymore
Nothing to ignore
No one to make sure you're ok
To make sure you're ok

You've got bedtime eyes
And you bat 'em like a hero and to no surprise
You just kill me, kill me sometimes
You just kill me, kill me sometimes
I'm not getting any closer
I'm not getting any closer
I'm not getting any closer
I'm not getting any closer to you again
Its not the same as it used to be before

Life times of sneaking
Lips speaking in whispers
And I kissed hers
But did she know it all along
I swear she knew it all along
And I'm holding her responsible
For everything, everything
For everything, all the things I've become

You're the one to blame for...
For everything, all the things I've become
You're the one to blame for...

You're the one to blame for...
For everything, all the things I've become
You're the one to blame for...

When you know that I'm gone you will
Say to yourself
I have nothing anymore,
Nothing to ignore,
No one to make sure you're ok, to make sure you're ok

When you know that I'm gone you will
Say to yourself

I have nothing anymore,
Nothing to ignore,

No one to make sure you're ok, to make sure you're ok

Life times of sneaking
Lips speaking in whispers
And I kissed hers
But did she know it all along
I swear she knew it all along
And I'm holding her responsible
For everything, all the things I've become

Everything means nothing
And that nothing means everything to me

You've got bedtime eyes
And you bat 'em like a hero and to no surprise
You just kill me, kill me sometimes.
(Sometimes)
I'm not getting any closer
I'm not getting any closer
I'm not getting any closer
I'm not getting any closer to you again
It's not the same as it used to be before

You're the one to blame for...
for everything, all the things I've become
You're the one to blame for...

You're the one to blame for...
for everything, all the things I've become
You're the one to blame for...

When you know that I'm gone you will
Say to yourself
I have nothing anymore,
Nothing to ignore,
No one to make sure you're ok
To make sure you're ok

When you know that I'm gone you will
Say to yourself
I have nothing anymore,
Nothing to ignore,
No one to make sure you're ok
To make sure you're ok.
