Iâ€™ve seen a picture of me and you
And all that I donâ€™t know, feels like I do

Now I am the seeker
I frighten my game
But pity not the hunted
For poor is my aim

And gone is my camouflage
My band to hide behind
And I played where I shouldnâ€™t have played
And I played out of time

Now you are the keeper
And how shall I fare?
As I lay beneath her

Now run if I dare

And gone is my camouflage
My band to hide behind
And I played where I shouldnâ€™t have played
And I played out of time

And now you the players
Handsome and rare
Come find the secrets that I long to share

And I know this jungle
Where the sun canâ€™t get in
And I may know where it ends
But where do I begin?
