

Fourth In The Fire "Brand New Day"

Visit "Brand New Day" on MotoLyrics.com

I walked alone today,
my world has turned to shades of gray
But you can't drag me down since I found the strength
I raise my head and sing out loud

CHORUS

It's a brand new, a brand new day
Take away, you take away the shame
All my sins have been erased
Take away, you take away the rain

That's fallin' down this brand new day

I'm standing on my knees cause Your love means everything to me
I'll never be the same since you make a way that I can lift my hand and cry out loud

Chorus

MUSICAL BREAK

Chorus(x2)

Cause it's a brand new, a brand new day...
