Oh I was walking
Down through gardens wet with rain
Someone changing
Changing everything
Then I was wondering
Who I was before we woke
As the dawn was folding
Folding over me
When enter the angel
Enter the angel
Enter the angel
Through some summer door
Then I was standing
By a bay of burning blue
I saw the lightning
Shining through the sea
Then I was bathing
In the beauty of a face
And there was silence
Mist and glimmering
When enter the angel
Enter the angel
Enter the angel
Through some summer door
Then I was walking out
Across the autumn days
You were turning, I said
'What's your name?'
When enter the angel
Enter the angel
Enter the angel
Through some summer door
