If this is what love is all about
You can count me out
Baby count me out
Just count me out

You can count me out, yeah
You can count me out, ohh

She was only seventeen a few months shy maybe
Boy looks in her eye such a lover
A few weeks down the line they're tying the knot
But then a few weeks after that it's over

If she's spending her life without him
She's calling it quits

If this is what love is all about
You can count me out
Baby count me out
Just count me out

If this is what love is all about
You can count me out
Baby count me out
Just count me out

You can count me out, yeah
You can count me out, ohh

Boy come home from school to find his momma crying
He looks inside her eyes so blue (her eyes so blue)
They sit down side by side she tells him the truth
She said last night I caught your daddy having (sex)

She's trying to wrap her mind around it
She can't figure it out (she can't figure it out)

If this is what love is all about
You can count me out
Baby count me out
Just count me out

If this is what love is all about
You can count me out
Baby count me out
Just count me out

You can count me out, yeah
You can count me out, ohh

Loneliness won't leave me alone
It's mid July and I'm still cold (you're so far away)
Thinking of my saddest memory yeah, just so I can cry
Tell me more, tell me more, tell me more

All I need is you, yeah
All I need is you, yeah
All I need is you, yeah
All I need is you, you

If this is what love is all about
You can count me out
Just count me out

If this is what love is all about
You can count me out
Just count me out

If this is what love is all about
You can count me out
Just count me out

(You can count me out)
