As my lamp grows dim and I'm hardly hanging on
In this path I've been following for years
Now is not so well lit and the pieces don't fit no more

Should I proceed or turn back around
Lord, let me know what I should do

Evil thoughts, evil powers seek my mind
I feel lost every time
Evil force, evil ways close behind
I, I need love, I need love, I need love

Back the way I came, nothing looks the same
And the bread crumbs I've left along the way Now've been eaten away by the birds that have left in my path

Should I proceed or turn back around
Lord, let me know what I should do

Evil thoughts, evil powers seek my mind
I, I feel lost every time
Evil force, evil ways close behind
I, I need love, I need love, I need love

All I know isn't always the truth
All I know isn't always the case
All I know isn't always the truth
All I know isn't always the case

As the days grow long
And the sun's gone down
It's so hard for me

Evil thoughts, evil powers seek my mind
I feel lost every time
Evil force, evil ways close behind
I, I need love, I need love, I need love

All I know isn't always the truth
All I know isn't always the case

All I know isn't always the truth
All I know isn't always the case
